

His Praiseworthy Deeds

Lesson 6 Only One God (II Kings 5:1-15)

STORY:

Poor Naaman.
He has owies.
Owies on his face.
Owies on his arms.
Owies on his hands.
Owies on his legs.
Owies everywhere!

Naaman's daddy cannot help him.
Naaman's mommy cannot help him.
The doctor cannot help Naaman.
Only God can help Naaman.

Naaman went to see Elisha.
Elisha loved God.
God knew what to do.
"Wash in the river water
seven times," said Elisha.

Seven times!
Let's wash in the water like Naaman.
One, two, three, four, five, six, seven.
Seven times Naaman washed in the water. Just like God said.

And Naaman's owies were gone.
He had no owies on his face.
No owies on his arms.
No owies on his hands.
No owies on his legs.
God took away Naaman's owies!

Show Naaman (picture 6A).

Point to his spots, which are the owies or sores,
and to your own arms, hands, and legs.

(Note: If your children don't understand the word
"owies," you may want to use another word such as "hurts.")

Shake your head "no."

Point up.

Show Elisha (picture 6b).

Nod your head "yes."

Show Naaman in the river (picture 6c).

Duck down seven times pretending to wash in the river.

Show picture 6d.

Point up.

STORY CONTINUED:

Naaman said, "There is only one God!"
God is great!
God is strong!
God is good.
There is only one God.

Show one finger.
Show Naaman again (6d).
Make a strong gesture.

Show one finger.

Lesson 6 Only One God

STORY:

God Heals Namaan (II Kings 5:1-15)

THEME:

There is Only One God

AT HOME:

Talk about owies. Remind your child that Namaan had owies. Remind your child that only God could help Namaan.

When observing nature or acts of God, tell your child that God is strong. God is good. There is only one God.

Count different things. Then say, "But there is only one God."

PRAY:

Praise God that He is the only God. ("You are the only God.")
