(Jonah 1-3)

Note: If you are using a flannel board, you will need to have the scene set up ahead of time with land and water. Place a crowd of people on the land.

God told Jonah, "Go tell the people about me."

"No!" said Jonah.

"I will not go.

I will not tell the people about God."

Show Jonah (picture 7a).

Shake head "no." Speak in a strong, defiant voice.

Jonah ran away.

Jonah got on a big boat.

But God was with Jonah on the boat.

Show picture of Jonah and the boat (7b).

God sent a big wind.

The boat went up and down.

And up and down. And up and down.

Everyone was afraid.

Bob your head and upper body up and down as you say the words "up and down."

Shiver as if afraid.

But Jonah could not run away from God.

"Throw me in the water," said Jonah.

Splash! Into the water went Jonah.

Splash! Splash!

Shake head "no."

Show Jonah in the water (picture 7c).

But God took care of Jonah.

God sent a big fish to pick up Jonah.

Gulp! Gulp!

Down went Jonah!

Into the fish's tummy.

Show Jonah in fish (picture 7d).

But God was with Jonah.

Jonah could not run away from God.

God is everywhere.

Point up.

Shake head "no."

Make an expansive gesture with your arms.

Lesson 7

God is Everywhere

STORY:

God is with Jonah (Jonah 1-3)

THEME:

God is Everywhere

AT HOME:

Talk about Jonah trying to run away from God. Remind your child that no one can run away from God.

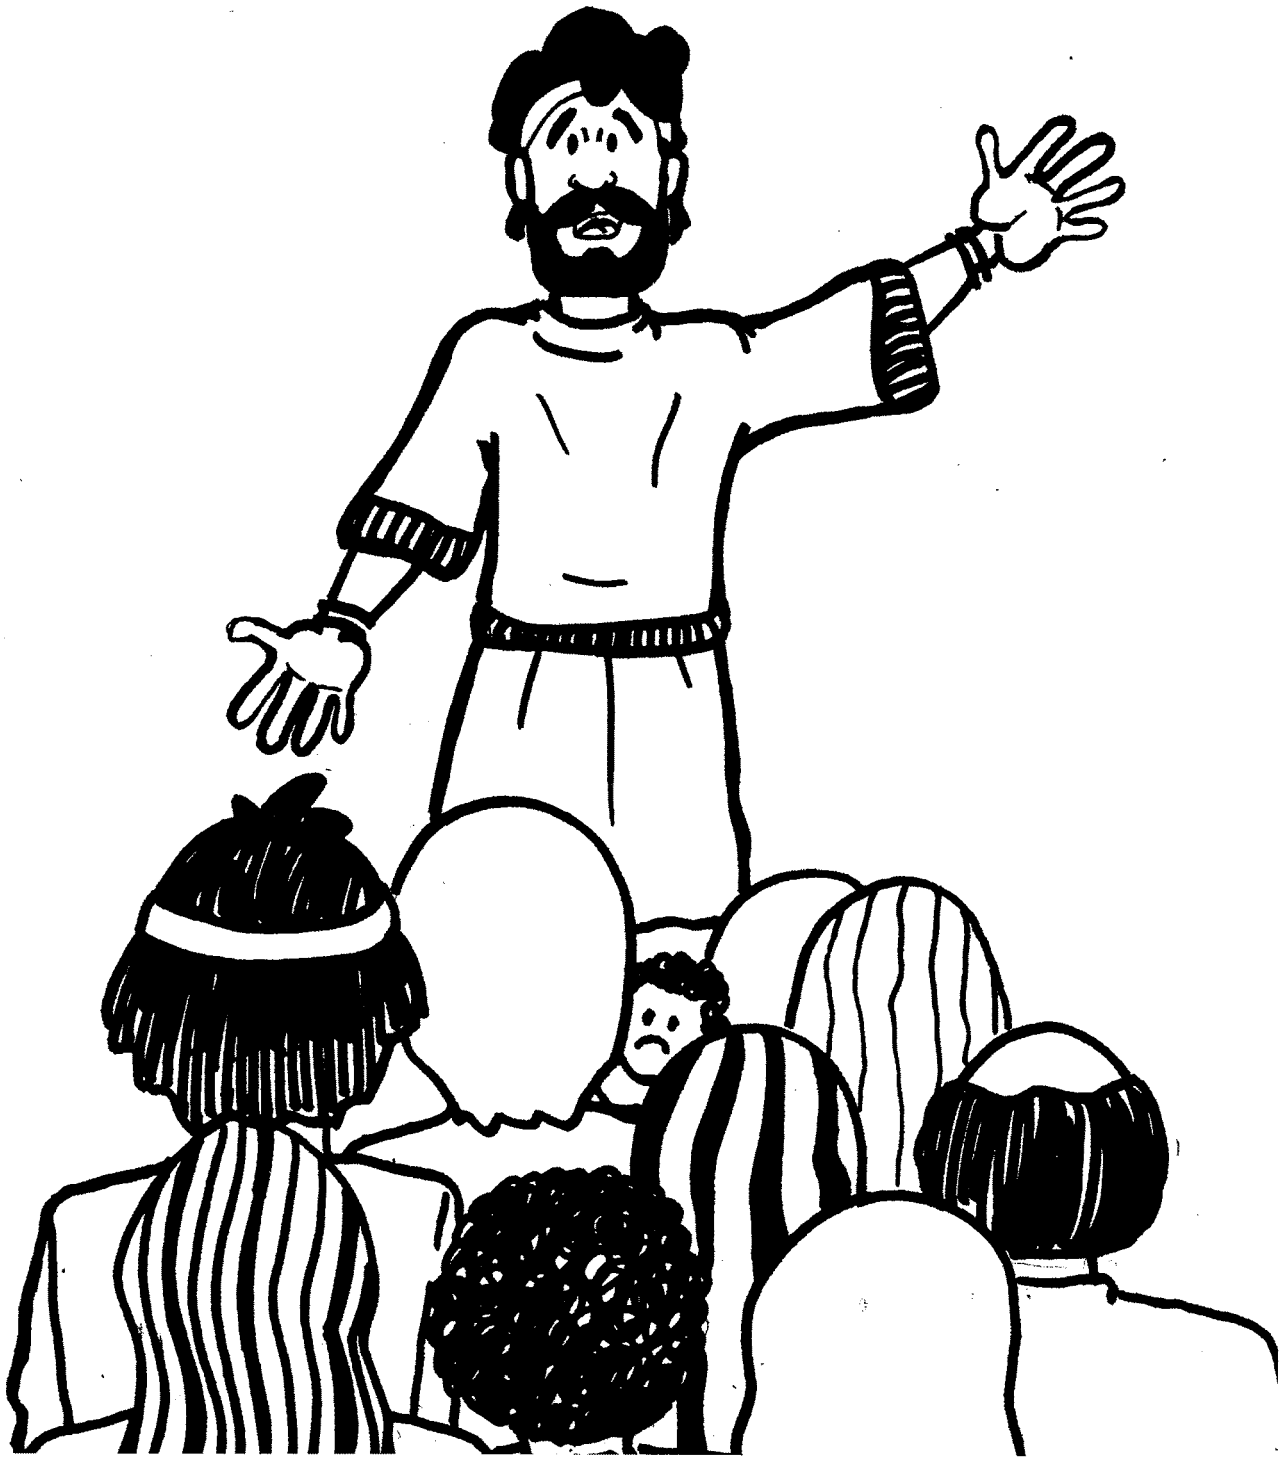

Throughout the day, ask your child if God is with him. Then remind him that God is everywhere. For example, "Is God with us in the car? Yes! God is everywhere" or "Is God at Grandma's house?"

Make sure that your child understands that although we cannot see God, He is with us. For example, "Can you see God? But God is here."

PRAY:

Thank God that He is everywhere.
